INTRODUCTION

ESCON Elevators was established in 1990.

ESCON is a fast growing proud to be Indian company having in-house R&D and manufacture. It is ISO 9001-2008 certified for design and manufacture and has NSIC-CRISIL Performance & Credit Rating SE-1B signifying the highest degree of performance capability and moderate financial strength. ESCON is a member of IEEMA and its product is certified by ERTL. It is also a registered SSI and registered with NSIC.

It is a rupees 600 Million turnover private limited company planning to become a limited one in the near future. It has a 1600 Sq.M. factory and head office complex in New Mumbai, sales office in Mumbai and branch offices in a dozen cities in India as well as one in Nepal.

ESCON was promoted by a professional with more than 30 years' in depth experience in elevators. He leads a team of qualified professionals and technocrats. The team designs and manufactures elevators comparable with the best in the world in its range in performance. ESCON elevators' range having been designed entirely in house by its R&D team, is continuously upgraded based on customer feedback and the Company's perception of customer expectations.

The in-house capabilities enable the Company to respond positively, pro-actively and quickly to customer's customization requirements without being limited by the boundaries of any overseas 'principals' range and to carry out necessary trouble shooting well and promptly, again without having to wait endlessly for solutions from an overseas 'principal'. At the same time, where the company considers it necessary or optimal to import parts – such as in case of drives, headers, door drives, machines, etc., it imports them from among the most reputed and dependable sources in Europe, Japan and China.

ESCON has a population of about 5000 installed elevators with another 700 Elevators at different stages of execution, in various Government, Public and Private organizations in India and some abroad. It has installation bases and, consequently, after sales service set ups spanning the length and breadth of the country with its footprint ever growing
